

An unfinished building behind a football ground. Sometimes boys or girls end up going to search for their ball which got kicked in the area.

People have a very bad habit...

As the population increases, more houses must be built. Sometimes building sites are left at a standstill.

We must save the environment and finish what we have started since all this might lead to serious accidents.

LET US CARE FOR OUR ENVIRONMENT!

a cropped picture of what they have left...